4 The roll

- (1) An electoral roll shall be kept at the Office of the Electoral Commission showing all persons qualified under clause 64 of the Constitution to be electors of representatives of the people.⁷
- (2) The roll shall be kept by the Supervisor of Elections and shall —
 - (a) be divided into electoral constituencies;⁸
 - (b) be based on the final roll used for the previous election;
 - (c) be amended to show errors since discovered, newly qualified electors, deceased electors, persons who are no longer Tongan subjects or are disqualified electors, and the latest constituency in which people are entitled to vote;⁹
 - (d) include for each constituency a separate section showing electors who reside overseas and their address.¹⁰
- (3) Every Tongan upon attaining the age of 21 years shall, unless disqualified under clause 64 of the Constitution, within 3 months of attaining that age or within 3 months of his return to the Kingdom if not already registered or within 3 months of becoming a naturalised Tongan subject, apply to the Supervisor in Form 1 of the Schedule to be entered on the roll for the constituency in which he has been resident for the period of 3 months before his application for registration. An application in Form 1 shall include a recent photograph of the applicant. Upon the registration of any elector, the Supervisor shall issue a certificate in Form 2 of the Schedule.¹¹

- (4) Within 14 days of an election, every candidate shall deliver to the Supervisor a signed statement of his election expenses in Form 7 of the Schedule, itemized and complete in all respects.⁶⁴
- (5) It is an offence for any candidate to spend on an election campaign more than the sum of $20,000 or to fail to deliver the statement referred to in sub-section (4) or to deliver a false statement, and any person found guilty shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.⁶⁵
- (6) If a person convicted under subsection (5) was elected at the election, and if the Court considers that the circumstances of the offence are sufficiently serious, the Court may declare the candidate's election to be void and if he has already taken his seat in the Legislative Assembly he shall be unseated by the Assembly.

PART V - ELECTION PETITIONS

25 Method of questioning election

- (1) No election and no declaration of poll shall be questioned except by a petition complaining of an unlawful election or unlawful declaration (in this Act referred to as an election petition) presented in accordance with this Part of this Act.
- (2) A petition complaining of no declaration shall be deemed to be an election petition, and the Supreme Court may make such order thereon as the Court thinks expedient for compelling a declaration to be made or may allow the petition to be heard as provided with respect to ordinary election petitions.

26 Election petitions

- (1) An election petition may be presented to the Supreme Court by one or more of the following persons —
 - (a) a person who voted or had a right to vote at the election;
 - (b) a person claiming to have had a right to be elected or returned at the election;
 - (c) a person alleging himself to have been a candidate at the election.
- (2) The member whose election or result is complained of shall be the respondent to the petition, and if the petition complains of the conduct of any official the Chairman of the Electoral Commission shall also be a respondent.⁶⁶
- (3) The petition shall be in such form and state such matters as are prescribed by rules of court, and be signed by the petitioner or all the petitioners if more than one.

- (4) The petitioner shall present his petition by filing it in the office of the Supreme Court at Nuku'alofa, and shall serve a copy of it on each respondent thereto.
- (5) The petition shall be served personally, or in such other manner as may be prescribed by rules of court.

27 Time for presentation of election petition

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an election petition shall be presented within 28 days after the day on which the result of the poll has been declared.
- (2) If the petition questions the election or result upon an allegation of bribery and specifically alleges a payment of money or other reward to have been made by the member or on his account or with his knowledge and consent since the day of the declaration of the poll in pursuance or furtherance of the alleged bribery, it may be presented within 28 days after the date of the payment.
- (3) For the purposes of this section an allegation that an election is avoided under section 33 of this Act shall be deemed to be an allegation of bribery, notwithstanding that the offences alleged are or include offences other than bribery.

28 More than one petition relating to same election

Where more petitions than one are presented relating to the same election or result, all those petitions shall be dealt with as one petition.

- (5) On the trial of an election petition complaining of an unlawful election declaration and claiming the seat for some person, the respondent may give evidence to prove that person was not duly elected, in the same manner as if he had presented a petition against the election of that person.

32 Avoidance of election of candidate

- (1) Where a candidate who has been elected at any election is proved to the satisfaction of the Court at the trial of an election petition to have been guilty of an offence against sections 21, 22 or 24 at the election, the Court shall (where the offence is against section 24 if it considers the circumstances of the offence to be sufficiently serious), declare the election of that candidate to be void and if he has already taken his seat in the Legislative Assembly he shall be unseated by the Assembly.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prevent any person being charged with an offence against sections 21, 22 or 24.

33 Avoidance of election for general corruption

- (1) Where it is reported by the Supreme Court on the trial of an election petition that corrupt or illegal practices committed in relation to the election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of any candidate thereat have so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result, his election, if he has been elected, shall be void and if he has already taken his seat in the Legislative Assembly he shall be unseated by the Assembly.

- (a) the Court shall be guided by the substantial merits and justice of the case without regard to legal forms or technicalities;
- (b) the Court may admit such evidence as in its opinion may assist it to deal effectively with the case, notwithstanding that the evidence may not otherwise be admissible in the Supreme Court.

36 Irregularities not to invalidate election

No election shall be declared invalid by reason of —

- (b) any omission or irregularity in filling up any form prescribed by this Act or any regulations made thereunder; or
- (c) any want or defect in the appointment of any official or scrutineer; or
- (d) any absence of, or mistake or omission for breach of duty by, any official, whether before, during, or after the polling,

37 Certificate of Court as to result of election

At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the Court shall determine whether the member whose election or return is complained of, or any and what other person, was duly elected or returned, or whether the election was void, and shall forthwith certify in writing the determination to the Speaker.

38 Costs of petition

All costs of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition, and to the proceedings consequent thereon, except such as are by this Act otherwise provided for shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Supreme Court may determine; and in particular any costs which in the opinion of the Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations, or unfounded objections on the part either of the petitioner or respondent, and any needless expenses incurred or caused on the part of the petitioner or respondent, may be ordered to be defrayed by the parties by whom they were caused or incurred, whether those parties are or are not on the whole successful.

39 Costs payable by guilty persons

- (1) Where on the trial of an election petition it appears to the Court that any person has been guilty of an offence against sections 21, 22 or 24 the Court may, after giving that person an opportunity of making a statement to show why the order should not be made, order the whole or any part of the costs of or incidental to any proceedings before the Court in relation to that offence or to that person to be paid by that person to such other person or persons as the Court thinks fit.
- (2) All costs so ordered to be paid may be recovered as a debt due by the person by whom they are ordered to be paid to the person or persons to whom they are ordered to be paid.

⁶⁰ Cap 20.15

⁶¹ Amended by Act 13 of 2010

⁶² Inserted by Act 15 of 1992

⁶³ Amended by Act 6 of 2020

The relevant amendment is planned to be –

“Section 24(1) of the Electoral Act is amended, in the English and Tongan versions, by repealing “$10,000” and replacing it with $20,000.”

The explanation for this amendment is set out in the Bill as follows –

“In section 24(1) of the Electoral Act in the English version the maximum permitted spend by a candidate on an election is $10,000 and this is consistent with the recital of that amount (twice) in section 24(5). However the Tongan version of section 24(5) was amended by Act 13 of 2010 to increase the amount to $20,000 (not in the English amendment). By implication then this should be $20,000 in s 24(1) as well and it should also be $20,000 in s. 24(1) and 24(5) of the English version.

Subsections (2) and (3) of this clause (in the planned Miscellaneous Amendment Bill for 2018) make all the amounts consistent and confirm that the maximum amount permitted to be spent on an election by a candidate is $20,000; and that the fine in section 24(5) is $10,000.

It should be noted that section 21 of the Interpretation Act now provides that if there is a difference in meaning between the English and Tongan versions of an Act then –

“the court shall treat the Tongan language version of that provision as giving the true meaning of the law if it considers that the difference in meaning goes beyond a simple clerical error or error in translation.”

⁶⁴ Substituted by Act 15 of 1992 and Amended by Act 13 of 2010

⁶⁵ Amended by Act 6 of 2020. .

The relevant amendment is planned to be –

Section 24 of the Electoral Act is amended, in the English version and Tongan version, by repealing subsection (5) and replacing it with the following –

“(5) It is an offence for any candidate to spend on an election campaign more than the sum of $20,000 or to fail to deliver the statement referred to in subsection (4) or to deliver a false statement, and any person found guilty shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.”

The explanation for this proposed amendment is set out in endnote 63 above.
